To Whom It May Concern

Letter of Reference – Diva Delvira Oraia Maru Kemur

We are pleased to write this letter of reference for Diva Delvira Oraia Maru Kemur, who completed her Co-Ops Internship program in the Material Management section, Supply Chain Management Department at PT Vale Indonesia Tbk, from February 9th, 2026, to July 31st, 2026 assigned for Junior Inventory Analyst role.

During this program, Diva demonstrated strong dedication and good performance. Some of the key points about her performance and contributions are as follows:

- Teamwork and Collaboration: Diva demonstrated excellent collaboration within the Material Management team. She actively participated in cross-departmental coordination, consistently supporting her colleagues and contributing to a positive team dynamic throughout her internship.
- Work Ethic and Attitude: Diva consistently demonstrated strong work ethic, punctuality, and a proactive attitude. She showed the ability to work under tight deadlines while maintaining quality and attention to detail.
- Project & Study Contributions: Diva successfully completed two main projects: (1) Developed an integrated monitoring dashboard to improve visibility of priority materials and enable proactive inventory decision-making across Inventory Management, Shipping Traffic Exim, and Procurement; and (2) Conducted a User Satisfaction Analysis using SERVQUAL and IPA methodologies, identifying key service gaps and delivering improvement recommendations for Material Management. Beyond her main projects, she also assisted in building an SCM Sustainability invoice mismatch dashboard, developed workflow diagrams for the ADR Online system and repairable materials process, structured an inventory matrix for critical materials classification, and participated in physical stock opname (FLS-Smidth materials) and continuous improvement activities.

Diva has proven to be a valuable team member, and we are confident that she will excel in her future endeavors in the supply chain and logistics field. She possesses the skills, knowledge, and attitude required for success in this industry.
